

Johan Buekens studied osteopathy at the College Sutherland (Antwerp – Belgium).

In 2014 he graduated with a Master of Science in Osteopathy at the Donau Universität Krems (Austria).

Since 1994, he works as an independent Osteopath in Garnich (Luxembourg) where he was co-founder of the Luxembourg Osteopathic Association ALDO.

From 1995-2003 he was the ALDO's secretary and it's president till 2009.

From 1999 , he teaches at the College Sutherland at different locations in Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands.

In 2006 he started lecturing Integration at the Wiener Schule für Osteopathy.

In 2017 he started teaching at the Japan Traditional Osteopathic College (JTOC) in Kobe.

Johan is also lecturer at different post graduate programs in Germany, Switzerland, Luxembourg, and wrote several publications.